

The present report to the European Parliament and the Council describes in detail the different phases of the suspension mechanism and the dialogue the Commission held with Vanuatu. The report is submitted in compliance with Article 8(7) of the Visa Regulation.

3 ???· The end of the agreement with Vanuatu marked the first time the EU has withdrawn the visa exemption of a country for operating "golden passport" schemes. PHOTO: REUTERS UPDATED Dec 13, 2024, 06:16 AM

Members of the European Parliament (MEPs) have expressed support for revoking Vanuatu's visa-free arrangement with the European Union (EU) due to security concerns related to the country's citizenship-by-investment scheme.

3 ???· The European Union revoked a visa-free travel agreement with a country over its "golden passport" program for the first time on Thursday, ending the deal with the Pacific archipelago of Vanuatu ...

Due to the lack of progress, on 12 October 2022 the European Commission proposed the full suspension of the agreement from 4 February 2023. Council decision on the suspension in whole of the application of the agreement between the EU and Vanuatu on the short-stay visa waiver

Due to the lack of progress, on 12 October 2022 the European Commission proposed the full suspension of the agreement from 4 February 2023. Council decision on the suspension in whole of the application of the ...

The European Union has announced a full suspension of visa-free access for citizens of Vanuatu because of the Pacific island nation's "golden passports" scheme, which offers nationality to ...

3 ???· The end of the agreement with Vanuatu marked the first time the EU has withdrawn the visa exemption of a country for operating "golden passport" schemes. PHOTO: REUTERS ...

3 ???· Even though the European Commission established a dialogue with Vanuatu to remedy the situation, the concerns in relation to the investor citizenship scheme have persisted. Therefore the Council today decided to amend the EU's visa regulation (Regulation (EU) 2018/1806) by adding Vanuatu to the list of countries whose nationals must be in ...

3 ???· The European Union revoked a visa-free travel agreement with a country over its "golden passport" program for the first time on Thursday, ending the deal with the Pacific ...

In January 2022, the European Commission proposed a partial suspension of Vanuatu's visa-free travel agreement with the EU, citing security "risks posed by Vanuatu"s investor citizenship schemes."

During the dialogue, the EU invited Vanuatu for a discussion regarding quality infrastructure investments and possible cooperation with the EU in funding them under the Global Gateway strategy to further solidify the EU-Vanuatu partnership.

The European Union has announced a full suspension of visa-free access for citizens of Vanuatu because of the Pacific island nation"s "golden passports" scheme, which offers nationality to investors.

Web: <https://www.gmchrzaszcz.pl>